

Raising Resilient Rascals Takes Flight!

March 5th and 6th, 2010

Museum of Flight, Boeing Field - Seattle

Valuable information for foster & adoptive parents and professionals, presented by experts in the field.

Friday, March 5, 9:00 – 4:00

- Building attachment in infant and early childhood adoptions – Kristie Baber, MSW
- Sleep difficulties and concerns for children – Julian Davies, MD
- Understanding and building childhood executive functioning – Gwen Lewis, PhD
- Advocating for your child's school needs – Panel discussion with experts

Saturday, March 6, 9:00 – 4:00

- Building healthy parent-child attachments - Deborah Gray, MSW
- The importance of self-care for parents - Deborah Gray, MSW
- Emerging health issues - Cynthia Kertesz, MD
- Parenting the adopted adolescent - Paulette Caswell, MSW
- Trans-racial, trans-cultural adoption issues - Suzanne Engelberg, PhD
- Trans-racial, trans-cultural adoption - Panel discussion with experts

Cost: $85 for one day; $155 for both days. Lunch included in the fee.

Presented by: Center for Adoption Medicine at the University of Washington, Cascadia Training, Northwest Adoption Exchange, and Nurturing Attachments

For more information or to register: 800-298-6515 or 206-441-6892 or visit:
www.cascadia-training.org

CEUs: 7 CEUs per day, 14 total, no additional charge.