

You are invited to join a research study!

Family Formation through International Adoption

- Are you a first-time parent?
- Are you traveling to Taiwan to adopt a new baby or toddler?
- Is your international adoptee between 2 and 36 months of age?

We would like to look at the developing relationships between you and your child. The study is a partnership between The International Adoption Program at Roosevelt Medical Center and researchers at the University of Washington, School of Nursing.

If you would like more information about participating in this study, please email* Sally Johnston, Researcher,
